IN BRIEF

Situated close to the heart of the peaceful Breton village of Duault, this charming two-bedroom property offers a wonderful opportunity for those looking for a character home with land and outbuildings. The house provides a bright veranda, fitted kitchen, utility room and cosy lounge with wood-burning stove on the ground floor, with two bedrooms and a shower room upstairs. Outside, the property benefits from approximately 2,000m² of land, a large stone outbuilding offering excellent potential for storage, workshop, conversion or additional accommodation, as well as a smaller stone building. Ideally located within walking distance of the village centre and surrounded by the beautiful countryside of central Brittany, this property would make an ideal main residence, holiday home or renovation project.
