DESCRIPTION

Two terraced cottages have been combined to make one spacious family home, in a quiet little hamlet close to Plouguenast.

Ground floor;

The door opens onto a hallway with stairs to the left side of the house and a door into a large open plan living area, including a lounge area with wood-burning stove and a light and airy dining/sitting room area.

At the back of the house is a hall area and the kitchen with fitted units and white goods which are included in the sale.

A downstairs shower room includes a toilet, hand basin and shower.

Upstairs;

The first staircase leads up to two rooms of 7.8m² and 13.2m²

The second staircase by the front door, leads to bedrooms of 9.4m², and 13m² and a bathroom with a bath, handbasin and WC.

Outside is mainly laid to lawn and there is access from behind as a right of passage on the neighbours land. Further up the road there is a little parcel of land of 260m².

The septic tank is in the back garden and will need to be replaced.
