DESCRIPTION

All recently renovated the property consists of large bar / restaurant area with professional kitchen and four en suite bedrooms for paying guests.

Current turnover is in excess of €150,000, but there's scope to increase this. A good client base, with approx 65% French, 35% English and other nationalities, with a very good tourist client base during the summer months.

The terrace around the fountain (permission granted by the commune each year) seats 50, the bar can accommodate 26 covers, and the restaurant 28.

All equipment for the bar, restaurant, hotel, kitchen and terrace are included in the price.

There are no ties to a brewery or supplier.

There is a separate apartment with three bedrooms as owner's accommodation including living room, kitchen and bathroom. There are four en-suite hotel rooms, a studio, and a one bedroom apartment.

Cellar, parking, garage and garden complete the property.

Chalus is a small market town and has an excellent range of shops, bars and restaurants to meet your everyday needs, including a large modern supermarket, and a fortnightly market. It has an unspoiled traditional town centre with the remains of two medieval castles. Chalus is also part of the Perigord-Limousin Regional National Park which has many places of interest and beautiful countryside.

Limoges airport is 32km away.
