NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Charming stone house, full of character and history, situated in one of the historic villages of France. A superb holiday rental, or equally a permanent home which is a little different from the norm!

The house, which is perfect to inhabit immediately, boasts –

Ground floor:

- Spacious workshop (25m2) which was formerly the village forge and still contains remnants of that role.
- A cellar (25m2) which is used as a storage room but has the potential (subject to the necessary planning consents) to be converted into additional accommodation or a garage.

A large stone staircase leads up to the first floor and a covered terrace:

First Floor: Left from the covered terrace

- Lounge (24m2) – large open stone fireplace and double door storage cabinet.

First floor: Right from the covered terrace

- Kitchen/Dining Room (24m2) – with wood-burner, modern “coin cuisine”, pretty old blue enamelled stove, original stone sink and “cendrier” for storing the ash.
- Oak staircase up to 2nd floor:

Second Floor:

- Landing/ lounge area (21m2)
- Staircase up to mezzanine double bedroom (13m2). Double door to Attic&Pigeonnier (59m2) which has the potential (subject to necessary planning consents) to be converted into additional accommodation.
