DESCRIPTION

The main residence is entered via a spectacular triple-height entrance hall, where an elegant stone staircase ascends to the bedroom levels on the second and third floors. From the entrance hall, a few steps lead to the independent apartment, which comprises a cosy living room with wood-burning stove, a fully fitted kitchen opening onto a south-facing terrace, and truly panoramic views—an exceptional setting for al fresco dining. On the opposite side of the entrance hall are two large cellars housing the laundry facilities and a workshop. A further doorway leads to a magnificent stone-vaulted cellar with direct access to the street below.

The first and second floors accommodate six beautifully presented en-suite bedrooms or suites, each enjoying stunning views and private bath or shower rooms. The interiors have been finished with understated yet elegant taste, enhancing the property's exposed stone walls, wooden beams, and traditional tiled floors.

One of the first-floor suites offers direct access to the beautifully landscaped gravelled garden and pool area, planted with shrubs, flowers, and mature olive trees. The bespoke heated swimming pool is surrounded by private sun terraces, while a covered terrace provides a welcoming shaded area for dining and relaxation.

The extensive garage, topped with solar panels, can accommodate up to three vehicles. From the garden, double French doors open into the converted barn, known as...
