DESCRIPTION

Situated on a quiet lane (no white lines) and bordering the beautiful river Graine.

Ground floor:

Kitchen/dining room/lounge (34m²) with pellet burner. Double aspect with beams and feature stone walls on show.

Lounge/office (21m²) with log-burning stove. Note : The cross beams give a ceiling height of 1.8m in this room (slightly higher in between the beams) and there is also a shoulder height beam that runs through the middle of the room so it is used mostly as an office and for storage.

WC

First floor:

Master bedroom (36m²) with fabulous view up to the chateau and corner hand basin

Bedroom 2 (10m²) at the rear with views across the river and countryside beyond

Bedroom 3 (10m²) at the front with views up the chateau

Shower room (4m²) a little dated but perfectly functional.

The house benefits from a mains drains connection. It is mostly double glazed and the shutters are in excellent condition (solid wood) throughout. The heating is via the 2 stoves plus electric radiators for the bedrooms.

Pretty garden to side of the house with small shed and lovely gravelled courtyard in front. There is also plenty of parking space to the side of the house (on communal ground).

In periods of very heavy rain, the river can burst its banks and you can find water in the garden but the house is designed to withstand this, with 1 meter of concrete underneath the lounge floor (hence the low ceiling height in...
