NOTES

DESCRIPTION

An exceptional property:

Step into the timeless charm of this 17th-century farmhouse, passed down through generations and fully renovated in 1998. Combining high-quality materials with modern technology, this home offers ultimate comfort while preserving its authentic character.

Sustainable renovations:

The central heating system is powered by a heat pump, complemented by a solar water heater. Double and triple-glazed windows ensure excellent thermal and sound insulation, significantly reducing energy consumption.

Breathtaking natural surroundings:

The property spans 6.1 hectares of meadows and woodlands, dotted with century-old oaks and chestnut trees. This idyllic setting is perfect for housing horses or simply reconnecting with nature. A secluded cabin in the forest provides a tranquil retreat for meditation and relaxation.

A warm and functional interior:

The house unfolds over two levels:

Ground floor: Multiple entrances lead to a spacious living room with a Scandinavian wood stove, a bright lounge opening onto a south-facing terrace, and a kitchen illuminated by a skylight. This level also includes two bedrooms, a bathroom with a shower, a separate WC, and an office.

First floor: Accessed via the kitchen, a mezzanine leads to an additional bedroom and a shower room with WC.

Well-equipped and lush exteriors:

The garden boasts 80 fruit trees, a vegetable garden, and a well for irrigation.

The outbuildings include:

A garage/workshop with an upper level.

A barn for agricultural equipment (tractor, log splitter).
