IN BRIEF

At the end of a cul de sac, at the edge of a small village overlooking fields, lies this detached stone property with over two acres of land.

The house is ready to move into, well insulated with double glazed windows and electric heating. The land would be suitable for a smallholding or a big vegetable patch.

The property lies just 3 km from Villefagnan with a bakery, restaurant, bank, little supermarket, doctor, pharmacy and other amenities.

DESCRIPTION

The property in further detail :

Entrance hall (10 m²) with toilet and stairs to the first floor

Living room (25 m²) with fireplace and corner cupboard, double sliding doors towards a terrace

The living room is semi open with the dining room / kitchen area (23 m²) with fitted units and a door opening to the terrace.

At the back of the house (one step between the kitchen and hallway) lies a corridor that gives access to two bedrooms (15 and 19 m²), a separate toilet and bathroom (12 m²) with bath, shower and double sink.

There's also a utility room (19 m²) with hot water boiler and a sink, and another door that leads to the back garden.

Upstairs is an office area (10 m² on the ground, with good standing height in the middle of the room, leading to a bedroom (24 m² on the ground, again with good standing height in the middle of the room).

The garden surrounds the property to three sides and there are several fruit trees. In the front garden are some useful outbuildings (approximately 50 m²). The property lies at the edge of the village with some nice views over the garden and the countryside.

This property is perfect if you're looking for a bright stone house in a quiet setting with land.
