This is a pretty spacious village house, partially double glazed and is well situated close to local shops and markets. The house benefits from a large fitted kitchen, leading through to a light filled living/dining room with doors onto the sunny garden. A further living room (or study) could be used as a bedroom on the ground floor. There is easy access to two bathrooms on this level. Upstairs there are three large bedrooms and a smaller single room or study. The house has lots of well preserved original features, wood floors and exposed stone walls. Externally there is private parking, a large garage, pretty gardens, a small stone potting shed and two further stone outbuildings currently used as a spacious utility and workshop.

Just an hour from the coast and around...
