IN BRIEF

Nature lovers will fall in love with this magnificent 19th-century mill on the out-skirts of the traditional Alpine village of Cordon, less than 1 hour from Geneva (61km). The entire house was fully renovated in 2012 and 2018 and offers a bright and modern interior. It is made up of a beautiful home on the top two levels and has two additional apartments below which the current owners rent out to generate a fantastic income.

The property is nestled in a very sunny valley surrounded by forest with a small stream running through the garden with a stone bridge. The idyllic location of this remarkable property makes it ideal for a luxurious home or a charming holiday home and the outdoor kitchen and hot tub complete the luxury appeal. The apartments can continue to be rented...
