IN BRIEF

Substantial old character building on the edge of a historic village and surrounded by the beautiful countryside of the Parc Naturel du Haut Languedoc. The property was originally part of the old Romanesque abbey of St Pierre aux Liens.

The historic building offers around 380 m2 of living space over 3 floors with a private walled garden and courtyard plus large terrace overlooking the garden. It can easily be divided up into separate living spaces / apartments. Some of the rooms have fireplaces and beautiful, architectural features including vaulted ceilings on the ground floor and an old stone staircase leading from the terrace to the courtyard.

The enclosed garden has a basin which is fed by a spring that flows all year round with reminders that the village is on the route to St Jacques de Compostela.
