IN BRIEF

A beautiful village property situated in a small Dordogne village, and less than 10km to the market town of Thiviers, which benefits from a train station and all the commerces and amenities that you need on a day to day basis, including a popular weekly market.

The property has been renovated to a very high standard, using quality materials, whilst maintaining lots of original features. It currently offers over 260m² of living space with flexible options as to how this is used, with three independent accesses. There is potential to easily add a further 100m² plus of living space should you wish to, making it an ideal property for a B&B business.

Fibre optic internet is available in the village.
