NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property is sited on a small estate with a couple of other properties, on a private lane with no passing traffic only to reach the other properties.

The property is accessed through a private gated entrance with a drive for a couple of cars vans etc. The gardens are to the front, sides and rear, and are very well maintained.

The property is accessed from steps entering into the bright hallway which is tiled, from here there is a light bright and airy lounge/dining area with an open fireplace, this leads into a separate fitted kitchen where there is a rear door leading to a terrace and steps into the garden.

Back into the kitchen, there is a door leading back into the hallway, here you can access 2 bedrooms and a family bathroom.

There are stairs up to a 1st floor landing area, with access to a further 2 bedrooms and a shower room.

The property is spacious and has a habitable footprint of approx 132m² this would suit a family or indeed a holiday home.

Below accessed from the property and garden, there is a garage, laundry room and small workshop space.
