IN BRIEF

This character property has been lovingly renovated using top quality materials to make a home that is both practical and charming. Inside, all renovations have been finished to the highest standard and there is potential for a two room apartment adjacent to the main house with services ready to be connected. Perfect as a holiday home or for year-round living, it is set back from the road on small cul-de-sac with one other property. The generous garden at the rear has a its own access from the road with and a paved terrace - as well as cherry and walnut trees. Day to day amenities are nearby in Clessé and Chiché - each about 5 minutes away by car. For a full range of services Bressuire and Parthenay are both within easy reach (about 15 minutes by...
