IN BRIEF

This substantial three bedroom house, situated in the centre of more than 10,000m2 of land with mature trees and lush planting is built of local granite, with high ceilings and large windows - the property is flooded with natural light and many of the rooms have a double aspect with beautiful views over the surrounding countryside. The large attic above with separate exterior staircase could make for additional living space and importantly - the roof was redone in 2019.

Across the spacious courtyard there is also a large longère with original character still evident - formerly used to house animals, and a large open hangar with garage and workshop attached.

Situated in a pretty hamlet complete with ancient chapel, the property requires renovation throughout including the sanitation system, but has the potential to make a beautiful family home, B&B or...
