IN BRIEF

Attractive detached traditional Quercynoise house set in over 4,500m² of mature gardens close to the popular village of Septfonds.

A fantastic opportunity to complete a character home where many major works are already done. The property benefits from a brand-new roof, a beautiful recently installed kitchen and modern bathrooms – giving you a huge head start while leaving scope to add your own style and value.

Further finishing is required. Heating is currently via electric radiators, and a full system could be installed. Some electrics need boxing in, walls finishing and insulation improving. A true rough diamond ready to shine.

Upstairs, an apartment with independent access offers excellent guest or rental potential but will require a kitchen.

The adjoining two-storey garage provides superb storage or the chance to extend (subject to

DESCRIPTION

Character property with additional accommodation and its own private entrance, set in 4,480m² of beautiful mature grounds, just a few minutes' drive from the lively village of Septfonds and its amenities.

Priced to reflect the work required, this is a fantastic opportunity to create a truly outstanding home in a sought-after location. The land is mainly flat and fertile, ideal for gardening, animals or simply enjoying the space and privacy.

Many important elements are already in place, including a good roof, a superb brand-new quality kitchen, and beautiful stone walls and exposed beams throughout. A large adjoining two-storey barn provides extensive storage or development potential but will require renovation.
