NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This property has an incredible amount to offer. Access down a private driveway the property is secluded from the local road and is comprised of:

MAIN FAMILY HOME

A traditional farmhouse house property built in local stone comprising:

On the ground floor an entrance lobby leading to the fully equipped high specification luxury kitchen with it's large central island, plenty of workspace and storage space and definitely the hub of the home. A doorway leads to the large family lounge with its woodburner and doors leading to the raised wooden terrace from which there are panoramic views of the land.

Stairs from the kitchen lead to the first floor with its bedroom and ensuite shower room/WC and a further set of stairs from the lounge lead to two further family bedrooms and a shower room.

A further set of stairs lead from the first floor to the second floor and a stunning master bedroom suite comprising a luxury bedroom, ensuite bathroom with WC and a large dressing room separating the bedroom from the bathroom. The whole of the second floor is given over to this beautifully crafted suite.

Throughout this main home great care and attention has been taken to preserve the character of the property with exposed beams evident throughout the property. A beautiful family home with no works required.

GITE

The independent gite is located further into the estate offering a completely private environment including a beautifully private garden area. Again, this property has been...
