IN BRIEF

Between Souillac and Cressensac, this former farmhouse in a dominant position would be ideal for an equestrian project. The house, huge barn and various outbuildings overlook more than 12 ha of meadows and adjoining woods.

The house needs renovation, but is structurally in good condition. Built on a cellar (in rock), it has 2 floors, 4 bedrooms, an attic, a bread oven and an adjoining wash-house, as well as a buried rainwater tank.

The huge barn made off stones offers superb potential, and you'll even find an indoor wash-house with water cistern.

This is a great renovation project with magnificent potential given the location and situation of the property.
