DESCRIPTION

Accessed down a quiet lane, this property offers peace, but not isolation.

House.

The house comprises of two rooms, with one large room upstairs under eaves. There is potential to play with the layout and it looks like the building could have been two smaller properties at one point. To the side of the of the house is a concrete block building with one stone wall that had been intended to extend the living accommodation.

Outside.

There is a good size garden to the rear laid mostly yo lawn with an additional lawned area across the lane. A stream forms the boundary to the property.
