IN BRIEF

Situated on the outskirts of the historic market town of Saint-Nicolas-de-la-Grave, this property is truly a gardener's paradise. The property sits in almost 2 hectares of stunning gardens, including an orchard and arboretum with over 400 trees from all over the world. The large windows and grand terrace make the most of the garden views so it can be enjoyed year-round as well as giving a view of the wonderful local chateau which was rebuilt by order of Richard the Lionheart in the 12th century.

The lovely 40m² living area is bright and airy with double doors opening onto a huge covered terrace. The kitchen is smart and modern with doors opening onto the salon making it perfect for entertaining. There is an office, utility/wet room, large garage, 3 bathrooms, and a wine cellar. The independent gîte is in...

NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Are you looking for a place where the pleasures of nature, activities and heritage go hand in hand with a gentle way of life? Then St Nicolas de la Grave is the place for you.

Situated at the crossroads of the provinces of Quercy, Gascony, and Guyenne and the vast plains of the Garonne, Saint Nicolas de la Grave boasts sumptuous orchards. It's also a very pleasant village where you can wander and visit its three churches: the brick parish church, the 19th-century Chapelle Notre Dame and the church of Le Moutet, as well as the Château Richard Cœur de Lion, the Musée Antoine Laumet de Lamothe Cadillac and its bandstand. Just a few kilometres away, you can enjoy a wide range of water and land-based activities at local lakes, canals, and rivers, or take advantage of the bird sanctuary, renowned for its diversity of bird species. (<https://www.ville-stnicolas82.fr/>) There are also some great local restaurants
