NOTES

DESCRIPTION

A quiet lane brings you to the main house on the left hand side, with the outbuildings a little further down to the right. The front door opens on to the sizeable but cosy kitchen/living area which benefits from a new woodburner. Behind the living area to the right is the first double bedroom and to the left a large, well-lit conservatory, currently being used as a studio with an en-suite shower and WC.

Upstairs are three good-sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Returning outside, a utility room adjoins the main house to the left of the outbuilding that is currently divided in three and offers lots of potential both for extra guest accommodation and for another country house.
