DESCRIPTION

Entering the front door you arrive in the first reception room (19m2) with mosiac flooring, and woodburner. In each corner is a door to continue to the other parts of the house. In once corner there is a lavatory/powder room, in the second corner is the corridor with stairwell to first floor, third corner is access to second reception room (15m2) with woodburner as well. The 4th corner leads you to the spacious cuisine with dining space (25m2).

On the first floor, with wooden flooring throughout, you will find three bedrooms (13m2, 13m2, 10m2). The hallway that provides access (8m2) has built in cupboards, and the stairs to the second floor. There is also a bathroom (9m2) that has separate bath tub, shower cabin, toilet and basin.

The second floor which just needs finishing touches, and could be used as a parental suite has a room (9m2), with an antechamber to the bathroom (3m2) and the already installed bathroom (7m2).

Attached to the right of the house is a store room '20m2) being used as a laundry/cellar/ and installation for the fuel heating system, including the I500L fuel tank. To the left of the house are further storerooms and enclosed verandah and garage of around 200m2 of space. The separate ancient cider press building has ground and first floor and has garage space on the side is also 50m2. Including further farm and outbuildings.
