DESCRIPTION

The main house has been recently renovated with quality. It can be divided into two separate accommodations, by simply closing the connecting internal door. Each section has a fully equipped modern kitchen, living space and a bathroom or shower room/W.C. and one bedroom.

The little cottage can also be used as rental accommodation.

Each house has its own terrace and the gardens have been tastefully landscaped to provide different areas to enjoy.

There is the potential to create another studio, by connecting the studio workshop and potting room. There is already water, electricity and drainage present.

The wine cellar has also been beautifully restored and provides a lovely, cool place to enjoy a glass of wine in the hot summer months.

The gardens end at the little stream that runs through the village. The gardens are private and a good size, yet in the centre of this pretty village with amenities on the doorstep.
