IN BRIEF

Set within a 1.5-hectare plot, this property includes a river, a small lake, and a private island.

A private drive leads to the main house, which features a distinctive tower, hinting at its historical connection to an old castle. The house has a working heat pump, double-glazed windows, and mains drainage, but the rest of the property requires renovation.

With plenty of potential, this is an opportunity to restore and update the interior to suit your own style.
