DESCRIPTION

This is a rare opportunity to own a substantial character property, complete with two beautiful gardens in the heart of a lovely village near the large regional medieval and Napoleonic town of Pontivy in the centre of Brittany.

The main house is composed as follows. Entering from the courtyard there is a living room on the left with a granite fireplace housing a wood burning stove and there is a connecting doorway to the adjacent house. On the right is a family kitchen and near the staircase is a downstairs WC.

On the first floor you will note the original hand-cut wooden floorboards in the corridor leading to three lovely bedrooms, each with a clear view over the lovely front courtyard garden. There is a shared shower room/WC for the first two bedrooms, and a private shower room/WC for the third master bedroom.

On the second floor a surprise awaits, a stunning master suite with cathedral ceiling comprising a living area with wood burning stove, raised mezzanine bed area and private water room with bath/shower, WC and hand basin. This is a spectacular room and finishes the house off beautifully.
