Close to the property starts a multitude of walking-, (mountain) biking- and horse riding tracks.

The villa has been sustainably built in a traditional and regional manner around the year 1981. Several improvements have been made since then, such as the change of the former floors by beautiful oak parquet floors.

The property offers a built area of approximately 270 m², including the living area of approximately 128 m². The property comprises, among others, a spacious entrance hall, a large open plan living-dining room with fireplace and an open kitchen and direct access to a terrace and a veranda, 3 bedrooms, 1 office, 2 bathrooms, 2 separate toilets, as well as a spacious garage with electric door and sink.

Next to the house is the "espace piscine", consisting of a spacious free shaped swimming pool, terraces,...
