DESCRIPTION

On entering the property you immediately notice the large spaces with high ceilings (2.8m). The hallway (8 m<sup>2</sup>) has a large cupboard and solid wooden staircase to the first floor. The property has lots of original features. As well as the original terracotta floor tiles, there is an old stone alcove by the door with the original metal shelf which was used to store the water drawn from the outside well. The dining room (23 m<sup>2</sup>) opens off the entrance hallway and there is a large cupboard under the stairs. Two large windows flood the dining room with light. As well as radiators, the room has a very efficient wood burner.

A half glazed door leads through to a large downstairs bedroom (19 m<sup>2</sup>) with two large windows overlooking the delightful mature rear garden. A second half glazed door leads from the dining room to the kitchen.

The fully fitted kitchen (11 m<sup>2</sup>) has an integrated hob and built in oven and a large porcelain sink. There is space for a dishwasher and an American style fridge/freezer. A door leads to the utility room/WC (4.2 m<sup>2</sup>) with plumbing for a washing machine. (There is a blocked up door from the utility room to the adjoining bedroom- possibilities here for a shower room ensuite to the bedroom). A glazed door leads from the kitchen on to the terrace with views over the garden.
