IN BRIEF

A surprisingly spacious and unique family home with a super kitchen and living area full of unique characteristics and charm. Spread over 3 levels this wonderful house has a stunning atrium at the heart of the house, part of which is built into the rock face. Situated at the end of a long track, the house sits on a peninsula and is surrounded by fields and woodland with gorgeous views and total privacy that can also be enjoyed from the large pool and terrace area. The 4 bedrooms all overlook the atrium, along with the 2 bathrooms, and at garden level you will find a lovely separate living area.

The garden is easy to maintain, and the large covered terrace is a perfect space for entertaining. The fully-independent gîte sleeps 4 and was a chapel dating back to the 16th...
