IN BRIEF

This is a large 5 bedroom property with double garage and garden just a short walk from the centre of the beautiful market town of Felletin. With a population of around 1500, Felletin attracts people from around the world to its International wool and music festivals. There is a bustling Friday market, and a lovely feel to the town, with small local craft shops and places to eat. There is a little train and bus station which can take you to Aubusson or Limoges. Nearby there are swimming lakes, the tapestry town of Aubusson and lots of places to do outdoor activities such as cycling, canoeing and walking. In need of some modernisation, this could be a stunning family home.
