IN BRIEF

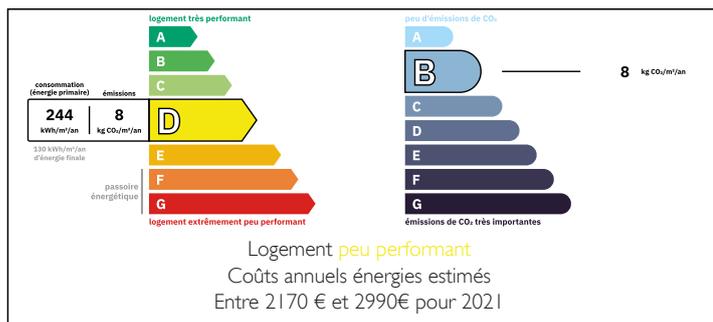

Comprising of three charming independent houses, each exuding its own unique personality, this estate offers a rare blend of charm & practicality. Whether you're seeking a peaceful getaway for yourself or an investment opportunity, this property has it all.

Currently operated as 2 gîtes these houses generate a steady stream of seasonal income, making it an attractive option for investors looking to capitalize on the thriving tourism industry in the region. However, it's not just limited to rental income; it could also serve as a home for a large family seeking a peaceful retreat.

The salt swimming pool is perfect for cooling off on warm summer days while the fenced land ensures privacy and security. The property also benefits from a new septic tank.

Just a stone's throw from the delightful bastide town of Eymet; also near Bergerac, with its convenient airport,...
