IN BRIEF

Step into the soul of this former hat factory from 1908, beautifully restored with great respect for its original charm and spirit. Just a short stroll across the old stone bridge brings you to Quillan's main square with cafés, restaurants, local shops, from bakeries and butchers to banks and a local hospital.

This rare property radiates a peaceful, almost magical energy. It offers generous living space, a sunlit terrace, a swimming pool, a games room, a welcoming bar, and even a well nestled in the lush garden.

A truly unique place — both a sanctuary and a source of inspiration — perfect for a large family, a bed and breakfast, a gîte project, or even a retreat venue.
