IN BRIEF

Situated on the edge of this small charming 13c bastide, this village stone house offers unrestricted views across fields and woods. The unique location of this versatile property can only really be appreciated by a viewing.

This three double bedroom house offers a bathroom, additional shower room, an open spaced living area and a 70m² multipurpose barn and is connected to mains drainage. The detached maison d'amis could be used as a studio or rental gite.

Montcabrier hosts events throughout the year and in the summer, the weekly night market takes place in front of the church, which is also well known for its classical music concerts. There is also a popular cafe/bar/boulangerie only a two minute walk from the door. The village is also on the Rocamadour pilgrim route of the Camino de Santiago with many walks available from...
