DESCRIPTION

UNDER OFFER - An offer has been accepted on this property. Viewings are currently on hold.

The restaurant features a friendly bar and two dining rooms with tables, one of which is adorned with a magnificent fireplace. Large windows bring in abundant natural light and offer splendid views of the garden and the river. From the restaurant, there is access to the toilets, kitchen, hotel reception, and a second room that provides ample space for parties, weddings, or other group activities. Both this room and the reception have separate entrances.

The business, including the hotel and restaurant, is for sale as an independent entity, without the building. This provides an excellent opportunity to start your own business without the immediate financial burden of purchasing a building. The purchase of the building can still be considered in the future. The building includes a modest staff apartment, offering the opportunity to live on-site and manage your business. A unique opportunity to create your own enterprise.

The terrace and garden offer a tranquil and secluded environment, ideal for guests seeking relaxation. There is plenty of greenery, and the terrace provides a beautiful view of the Vienne River. This unique location, centrally located and easily accessible to travelers, hikers, and local residents, has attracted a loyal clientele for years.

From the reception, there is access to the staircase leading to the first and second floors of the hotel. There are 11 rooms in total, 7 on the 1st floor, where is also...
