DESCRIPTION

This clean, much loved and cared for property is found in the middle of a large garden which has a separate garage, carport for three cars and two access points from a very quiet lane.

The long driveway leads you into a well presented house with no works needed. The septic tank conforms to the regulations and the house has been fully insulated .

Inside you will find modern kitchen with separate boot room and utility room.

You then are welcomed by a large open plan living space 60m2 with a downstairs wc and shower room.

Upstairs you will be surprised by a large master suite with bathroom and walk in dressing room and access to the balcony.

The second bedroom is accessed via an ante room that could be used as an office but is currently used as another bedroom, both with access to the balcony and terrace to enjoy your morning coffee.

The nearest airport is approx 50kms

The nearest train station with direct access to Paris is also approx 50kms
