IN BRIEF

This large family house, quiet and green, is located a stone's throw from a village where you will find all necessary facilities. Proximity of bakery, butcher, restaurants etc... You are also not far from Blaye where you will find schools, a hospital and supermarkets.

You enter the grounds via a long driveway through the beautiful green garden. A large pond adorns the property. The house is of the longère type, built with typical French stone. The large attached barn could serve as garage, workshop, storage space or, if converted, an extra large living space or gîte/studio. There is also a detached garage and some outbuildings such as an extra shed and garden house. The garden is a paradise for those who like lots of outdoor space.

On the ground floor there is an updated kitchen, living room, 2 bedrooms...

- Large terrace

This house is very suitable as a family home. Inside, there have been recent renovations.

The very large and green garden is an absolute asset when you are looking for peace and nature.

There is a lot of privacy and you are not overlooked by neighbours.

Part of the house still needs some refreshment but
