NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Lovely property of about 120m² habitable space in a quiet hamlet location comprising a semi-detached old stone house/ barn conversion, attached garden with above ground pool; carport with large toolshed and attached woodland with lake.

The house has been renovated within the last ten years and everything is in good condition and working order. The roof is insulated and waterproofed, there is double glazing throughout, some interior walls have also been insulated and the septic tank conforms with existing regulations.

On the ground floor is a large kitchen/ dining room (30m²) with wood burner and large glazed doors with views over the beautiful garden. Adjacent to the kitchen, in a semi-open plan space, is the salon (38m²) with large windows, wood burner and double height ceiling of almost 5m. There is also a laundry room/ store room (18.5m²) behind the kitchen with small entrance corridor (3.5m²) and the downstairs shower room with WC (5m²).

A staircase from the store room leads to the master bedroom (29.5m²) with small dressing and WC. Another staircase from the salon leads to the second bedroom (20m²) and upstairs bathroom (7m²) with bath, WC and washbasin.

Outside there is a lovely garden of over 5000m² with pebble terrace, above ground swimming seating area and a smaller tiled terrace with views over the rest of the garden (mainly lawn) and the woodland with lake of 1.5 hectares beyond. The woodland (Ref A31243NJJH24) is also part of the property and both...
