NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Along a quiet country lane, passing 3 other houses along the way, this stunning property is the last before open fields and countryside beyond.

In front of the house, there is a gravel courtyard, with lots of room for parking, although there is a large hangar to one side of the house with enough room for a workshop and to park numerous vehicles.

The main door leads into the large, above average, approx 32m2, fitted, country style kitchen with all normal amenities, including a gas range cooker, and a modern pellet burner. Original exposed stone walls, and oak beams giving it a cosy feel. To the rear, a laundry room, and a modern shower room and WC.

The open plan lounge/dining room, is approx 50 ms and has windows to both ends, the dining area looks out to the front of the house, the lounge area looks out onto the garden to the rear.

On the first floor, the large mezzanine is used as a day room and office area, and off the landing, two very good sized, double bedrooms.

The gardens to the sides and rear are mostly lawned, with mature trees, fruit trees and shrubs, along with a summer house. The land further to the rear is flat and grassed, large enough for small animals or for dogs and children to run about.

A very pleasing property with no further work to do other than your own design touches.
