IN BRIEF

This traditional tuffeau stone property offers so many different renovation possibilities, in a peaceful area of Chinon, and close to the cycle path.

The main house could offer 2 gorgeous bedrooms once renovated, with a partially converted gite (holiday home) at the other end of the courtyard, equally offering 2 bedrooms. Perfect for either letting out, and living in one, or for accommodation dispersed between different buildings; ideal for welcoming family. There is also another outbuilding offering the possibility of a further bedroom/studio, along with a courtyard central to them all, a large workshop and loft space and an impressive original bread oven. Brilliant opportunity for entertaining, hosting, or even working from home.

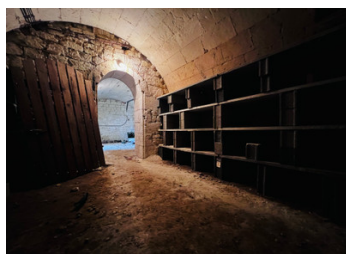

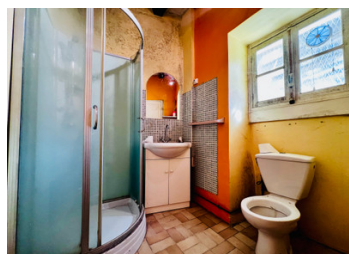

Chinon is only 3 hours by car from Paris, and from ferry ports. The city of Tours is less than an hour away, with an airport offering...
