IN BRIEF

Nestled in the heart of the small town of Eu, in Upper Normandy, on the edge of the forest, just a stone's throw from its château and wooded park, and only 5 km from the sea and the popular seaside resorts of Mers-les-Bains and Le Tréport, this unique house of around 205 m² of living space, with 4 bedrooms and a large sunny terrace, fully renovated in recent years, offers you all the charm and comfort of a family home.

A former business premises, currently serving as an entrance hall, could be converted back into a shop or, why not, transformed into a winter garden...

DESCRIPTION

Access to the house is through a renovated and insulated former commercial space, which opens onto a beautiful living area of about 60 m², where you can host large gatherings or simply relax in the cozy corner near the pellet stove. A few steps from the living room lead to the open and contemporary kitchen, which features perfectly designed equipment, with its central island installed under two large skylights. A very spacious adjoining laundry room will allow you to set up the washing machine and store materials, tools, and all your supplies.

On the first floor, a hallway with storage leads you to a master suite, complete with a bedroom of approximately 15m², a large bay window opening onto a small wrought-iron balcony with a view of the prettiest street in town, a crossing dressing area, and a shower room with an Italian shower. On the other side, a relaxation area with a toilet of approximately 16m², which can serve as a bedroom, leads to a very pleasant wooden terrace of about 28 m², facing southeast, which will allow you, in addition to moments of lounging and barbecue evenings, to grow some fruits and vegetables.

A charming, light-filled staircase takes you up to the second floor, opening onto a spacious landing area with two large storage spaces in original cupboards, as well as access to the attic.

To the right, it leads to a bedroom with its own shower room and toilet, and to the left, another...
