DESCRIPTION

Located in a peaceful hamlet in the heart of the magnificent Anjou vineyards, this house, currently under renovation, offers an exceptional living environment.

Built on a private garden, it combines modern comfort with authentic charm.

The house, already partially renovated, features a functional kitchen and a practical pantry. The spacious and bright large living-dining room promises convivial moments. The large mezzanine bedroom boasts a beautiful high ceiling, enhancing its warm character.

A second bedroom, equipped with an en-suite, provides an intimate resting space. The house also includes a separate WC and a shower room. Two convertible attic spaces offer extension potential to personalize your space according to your needs.

A large 60 m² garage completes the property, offering numerous possibilities for storage or conversion.

High-quality finishes are evident in the details: PVC double glazing for optimal insulation, underfloor heating via a heat pump for maximum comfort. The charm of the house is reinforced by traditional floor tiles and exposed beams that highlight its unique character.

This property represents a rare opportunity to acquire a house with enormous potential in an idyllic setting, combining modern comfort and old-world charm.
