DESCRIPTION

Situated in the Dordogne countryside near Montpon-Ménéstérol, this substantial former vineyard estate offers generous living space, authentic character and exciting lifestyle or hospitality potential.

The property forms one entirely independent ensemble, comprising the elegant main house positioned to the left, a large central barn and two independent gîtes extending to the right. This practical configuration allows owners and guests to enjoy both privacy and flexibility, making the property particularly well suited to tourism or multigenerational living projects.

Set within mature grounds with a swimming pool and several outdoor areas for relaxing and entertaining, the estate enjoys a peaceful setting while remaining within easy reach of Bergerac, Bordeaux and Saint-Émilion.

The main residence offers approximately 350 m² of living space with generous proportions throughout. While some refreshing would now be beneficial, the house retains considerable charm and numerous original features.

The ground floor includes a grand entrance hall, a spacious kitchen, a dining room with fireplace opening onto the terrace, a bright living room, a cosy lounge with fireplace, a winter garden, a large laundry room, WC and an impressive master suite complete with dressing room and en-suite bathroom.

Upstairs, wooden flooring runs throughout six generous bedrooms, four of which feature private sinks, alongside a shared shower room and WC.

The two renovated and operational gîtes are ready for immediate use:
