IN BRIEF

This lovely village property sits in a quiet road of the village of Verteillac. The house has very nice countryside views from the front terrace and a good sized garden easily maintained. Gates lead into the gravelled area in front of the garage. To the front of the property is also a terraced area that overlooks the garden and the views. The L-shaped open plan kitchen / dining / living room also has a lot of natural light entering into the house. Just off the dining room there is a storage room that also holds the hot water heater. To the side of the kitchen is a wc and a very useful utility room which also leads into the garage. Upstairs there is a large landing with a part of it that has been made into an...
