DESCRIPTION

This charming town house benefits from a fully fitted kitchen and lounge/dining room on the first floor with access to the original walled courtyard. The first floor has a large landing area with access to 4 bedrooms and a large bathroom and toilet. The second floor has a large attic accessed by the original staircase that could be renovated into further living space.

The adjoining commercial premises has a large shop, multiple rooms for storage and an office at the rear with double doors out to the rear garden. This whole area could have many possibilities or could be rehabilitated into further living space.

There is also a small house on two levels which could be renovated into even further living space. A further walled garden of over 100 m2 can be found at the rear of the property.

All measurements are approximate.
