DESCRIPTION

Accessed via electric gates with a modern intercom system, the property offers ample parking and beautifully arranged grounds. To one side is a putting green, while a pétanque court sits beside the pool house and overlooks the heated saltwater swimming pool.

The château opens into a bright entrance hall with double doors leading to a large terrace with views over the garden and Dordogne estuary. The open-plan living space includes two lounges, one centred around a fireplace and bar, and a second TV lounge opening into a library or office. The fully equipped kitchen features a central breakfast island and opens onto the dining room. A pantry/laundry room, wine cellar and a versatile storage room complete this level, along with a spacious bedroom suite with dressing area, shower and separate bathtub.

A magnificent stone staircase leads to the first floor, offering three bedrooms with garden views, two with en-suite bathrooms, additional bathrooms and access to a panoramic terrace.

The property benefits from heat-pump heating, air conditioning in selected rooms, fibre-optic internet, manual and electric shutters, a septic system, wooden garden storage, pool technical room, multiple water outlets scattered across the garden and recently cleaned roof and façades.

Just 15 minutes to Saint-Émilion an outstanding medieval town that opens its doors all year round to adventurers, wine-lovers and the simply curious. A city steeped in history perched on a rocky promontory, Saint-Émilion and its vineyards derive their originality from the limestone that has shaped their identity.
