NOTES

DESCRIPTION

The property is on the outskirts of the village of Ladignac Le Long, tucked away from the main road in it's own peaceful setting.

The main house is above a garage/cellar area with access to the main door up a few steps at the front. Ground floor has a large sitting room/ dining room (29.3m²) window to the front, double glass doors to the rear with wood burning stove. Ample space for family living.

Kitchen to the front (18m²) with traditional cupboards.

Bathroom/ utility to the rear (16m²) with door leading to the garden.

Downstairs w.c. with wash hand basin.

First floor:

4 good sized bedrooms, 2 facing the front and 2 facing the rear (18m², 19m², 16.8m², 17.2m²), lovely views over woodland and surrounding countryside.

Shower room (5.6m²) with w.c. and basin.

Second floor, coombe ceilings:

Office (8.3m²)

Bedroom (10.4m²)

Bedroom (14.8m²)

Open space used as extra living space.

The house has a covered terraced area to the side which overlooks the garden space.

The property has previously had some camping pitches which could easily be resurrected if wanted. These are in front of the mill building which needs to be seen to realise the full potential. The roof was recently replaced making it a very good project to develop into a main home or holiday accommodation.

There is a stream that runs adjacent to the mill and through the lands of this property. It comes from a small pond which is in the grounds (66 188m²) lovely walks and scenery all around with plenty of...
