IN BRIEF

A traditional Berrichonne farmhouse which has been renovated with love and care to preserve its original character. The property comes fully furnished and equipped, and has a grand entrance hall, a large sitting room with wood burner, a fitted kitchen, utility room, dining room and bathroom, all on the ground floor. Upstairs there are 3 spacious bedrooms off a large landing, one with an ensuite bathroom and dressing room, plus a separate shower room. The whole house feels warm and inviting.

DESCRIPTION

Outside, the garden and outbuildings are exceptional. A workshop, garage, lockable storage area and double-height timber hangar are attached to the house, and opposite is an outbuilding once used as stables. The garden is glorious, and very private, with a sizeable lawned area, natural hedges, trees, terraces that are perfect for entertaining and a pond. Two gated entrances give flexibility – there is plenty of room for parking and a motorhome.

This is a wonderful property and a rare opportunity to move straight into a charming country home.

Feusines is a village with a strong community feel. It has a nursery school, salle des fêtes, church dating back to the 12th century, ancient lavoir and Mairie. Shops and services can be found in the historic village of Sainte-Sévère-sur-Indre, just 5kms away, and further amenities are in the lovely small town of La Châtre (20 minutes). This ancient Berry region of central France is renowned for its connections with world-famous novelist George Sand, and the celebrated French film-maker, Jacques Tati.
