DESCRIPTION

The property comprises a small house in between two barns. With the appropriate planning permission, the barns offer excellent potential for conversion to create additional living space or guest accommodation.

The main house is accessed through a small conservatory /boot room leading into an entrance hall. Inside, you'll find an eat-in kitchen, a bathroom with separate WC, and two bedrooms — one of which could easily be used as a comfortable lounge.

To the rear, the land extends into gently sloping grounds, complete with a charming stream that traverses the property and a section of woodland.

The house also has a cellar and a attic. The installation of a drainage system is required.
