NOTES

DESCRIPTION

Exceptional, grand property, 3 floors, stunning spacious living, radiating character, with terrace, garden and garage. This duplex property is separated by a shared gated courtyard, each with its own garage. It is a unique opportunity for those looking to enjoy nature in a calm and tranquil setting.

Ground Floor

The entrance to this charming house, is set back from a country road. Upon entering the front door, one is captivated by the grand scale of the ground floor, comprising the foyer, lounge with double height ceiling and mezzanine, and double glass doors leading into a spacious open plan dining and kitchen with spectacular vaulted ceilings.

Returning to the entrance foyer, on one side a door leads to a separate laundry room, on the other side an old, stylish, black marble stone sink. Stepping into the spacious lounge with its commanding ceiling height, there is a modern wood-burner, door access to the garden, and a spiral staircase leading to a mezzanine and separate east side living.

East Side

The mezzanine leads into what is currently an office, which also provides a separate external entrance to the house, via a stone staircase. Passing through the office into a small unused scullery-type niche, which could be upgraded into a small kitchen; another staircase ascends up to the living area of this east side. The surrounding space includes a large master bedroom, two smaller rooms which are currently reading rooms and could be additional bedrooms, a cosy central lounge and...
