NOTES

DESCRIPTION

This unique holiday-home is a converted old barn that once served as a wine press and still maintains its original charm. It has been completely renovated inside, offering an elegant living space. It boasts stunning views & comfortable living accommodation as well as hassle-free income!

The primary living area is on the upper floor, taking advantage of the expansive views over the Charente and Dordogne valleys. The fully equipped kitchen, dining & living area lead out to the balcony through two sets of double doors.

The ground floor houses three tastefully finished bedrooms, each with an en-suite bathroom. These double bedrooms have doors that open to the garden or terrace.

The property includes a well-maintained, moderately sized garden, enclosed for privacy, with a terrace perfect for al fresco dining.

Additionally, there is an option to purchase this property and the neighbouring property with a shared, heated pool. Please look at Ref. A32589NIEI6 for more information.
