IN BRIEF

This beautiful house, the oldest in the hamlet, spans several stories and comprises an entrance hall, a bright kitchen, a living room with original tiled floor and wood-burning stove, four bedrooms and three bathrooms. A workshop gives access to a garage with space for one car. The garden is fully enclosed with a small terrace and woodshed, and there is a separate plot of land, on which a swimming pool can be installed, opposite the house plus an additional parking space.

Situated in a peaceful hamlet overlooking the surrounding countryside, the property is well located for those who enjoy quiet walks, yet is only 5 minutes from the nearest amenities and the train station.

NOTES

Vélines is a charming little Dordogne town on the banks of the Estrop river, eighty kilometres from Périgueux. Full of charm and authenticity, its natural setting is as impressive as its culinary specialities. Lovers of old stones will also appreciate its architectural and historical heritage, as well as its geographical proximity to the region's most beautiful sites.
